

Dear Parents / Carers,

We have come to the end of another very busy half term at OPALHG.

There has been lots to celebrate this half term, especially in terms of your constant support for the school.

Thank you for your support with World Book Day & Red Nose Day as the children all looked amazing in their costumes and Red outfits! Thank you also for your abundant generosity and support for our charities this half term.

I received a lovely email from Mandy Young from the NSPCC which I want to share with you.

“Dear Mrs Savage & Miss McMahon,

I have really enjoyed working in your school over the past few weeks: the teachers and staff have all been really welcoming and encouraging, the office staff really helpful and the children have been great, and as if that is not enough, you raised a colossal amount of money for us! £4506.78 is an amazing amount of money!

I just wanted to say a massive thank you for your support. Without supporters like you, we would not be able to do the work we do, so thank you so, so much!

But most of all thank you for making my visit so pleasant. I really do appreciate it.”

We also raised £742.02 for Red Nose day which is another great achievement and the range of baked goods that the children brought in to sell was spectacular!

We will be collecting donations of clothes for the Fire Fighters charity this Friday the money raised is split between school and the Fire Fighters. They do not accept old uniform, but we collect this separately to donate to Gambia via the Jobe family.

Please save old uniform for this collection at the end of the Summer Term.

We hope you all have a relaxing Easter break and look forward to welcoming you all back to school on Monday 24th April.

Be in the line for 10 to 9!

Thank you for a great half term,

Mrs Savage and the staff team at OPALHG
