Dear families,

We are pleased to announce a new collaboration with a local, independent book shop, 'Darling Reads' in Horbury.

On Thursday, 9th February, members from Darling Reads will be coming to host an assembly and visit our Reception classes for a storytelling session.

Darling Reads are also going to hold a book sale in the hall on Thursday 9th February.

This will be from 2.45-3.45pm.

Please come via main reception and if possible, help us to stagger the people visiting to help prevent queues.

Darling Reads have kindly offered to give 10% off all books.

They will be set up to take card and cash payments on the day. You can also order books on the day and they will deliver them to school for free the week after.

Please visit their website for more information: <https://darlingreads.co.uk/>

We look forward to welcoming their team to OPA Lofthouse Gate and hosting the book sale.
